The Administrative Committee during the examination of the applications takes into consideration the recommendations of the persons and decides on the applications submitted to the ICF determining the amount of the compensations for each covered client-claimant.

11. Unjustifiably paid compensation

The ICF may demand at any time from a covered client to return the compensation paid to it, if it finds out a posteriori that there was a reason to reject its application.

12. Fixing of the amount of payable compensation

To ascertain the claims of a claimant against a member of the ICF, as well as any counterclaims of the member of the ICF against the claimant, the books kept and the particulars issued by the member of the ICF as well as the supporting evidence produced by the claimant are taken into consideration.

The amount of the compensation payable to each covered client is calculated in accordance with the legal and contractual terms governing the relation of the covered client with the member of the ICF, subject to the set-off rules applied for the calculation of the claims between the covered client and the member of the ICF.

The valuation of the financial instruments pertaining to the compensation payable to the covered client is carried out based on their value at the day:

- of publication of the court
- of publication of the decision of CySEC.

The calculation of the payable compensation derives from the sum of total established claims of the covered client against the member of the ICF, arising from all covered services provided by the member and regardless of the number of accounts, of which it is a beneficiary, the currency and place of provision of these services.

As the amount of the claim determined under this Regulation exceeds the amount of twenty thousand Euro (€20.000), the claimant receives as compensation the lump sum of the amount of twenty thousand Euro (€20.000).

- request from the ICF, the member of the ICF and the claimant to produce information and particulars
- run any investigation required, implementing the relevant provisions of CySEC (Establishment and Responsibilities) Laws of 2001 and 2002, as in force, and especially those provisions enacting the powers of the CySEC for entry and investigation.

The claimant to whom the ICF communicates the total compensation amount to which it is entitled, in case it disagrees with the ICF's decision, has the right within ten days from the communication of the decision, to appeal to CySEC, justifying sufficiently its alleged claim.

The CySEC, in as long as it finds errors or inaccuracies as to the evaluation by the ICF of the applications for the payment of compensation and the fixing of the compensation for each claimant, taking into consideration any memos submitted to it by claimants, may demand from the ICF to correct the payable compensations with a decision communicated to the ICF within forty-five days from the communication to it of the minutes of the compensation beneficiaries.

14. Deadline and procedure relating to the payment of compensation

The ICF is obliged to pay to each covered client-claimant the compensation within three months from sending to CySEC the minutes with the compensation beneficiaries.

The payment of the compensation by the ICF is deposited to a bank account of the covered client-claimant designated by the latter in writing to the ICF.

Every compensation payable to a covered client burdens initially the property of the ICF corresponding to the individual shares of its members and then the assets of the fixed reserve.

15. Effects of payment of compensation

The payment of any compensation by the ICF entails ipso jure subrogation of the ICF to the rights of the compensated covered client-claimant against the member of the ICF for an amount equal to the compensation payable to it.
